School Success Starts with You

Meet Kamiya

Kamiya* did not like going to school. She struggled with reading and her peers made fun of her. As a result, she fell behind academically and was not able to make friends.

Kamiya's mentor, Mary Kate, worked with her every week to improve her confidence and reading skills. Now Kamiya loves to read, enjoys spending time with her new friends, and passes her reading tests with flying colors.

Name changed to protect the identity of our youth.*
